SPARKLING TIME AT INGALLS.

Ingalls Park offered a first class program yesterday and helped by a perfect afternoon secured a crowd of nearly 4,000 people. The racing features were two handicaps, one at owners weights and two miles, and the other at 1 3/16 miles. Both races aroused much interest; that at eleven furlongs most. Out of it came the prettiest finish of the week. Four horses, King's Counsel, Mandolina, Babe Murphy and Dorian started and all were well played, King's Counsel closing favorite around 4 to 5. The field broke twice before Starter Dwyer let it go. Then a blanket would have covered the quartet. Dorian went to the front early and set a stiff pace the first mile after which he cut it, King's Counsel going to the front. At the head of the stretch the King seemed to have everything beaten and Clay became careless on him. Along about the sixteenth pole Mandolina drew up alongside King's Counsel and putting him to a drive stood one herself gamely and was only beaten a nose.

Major Koller had a heavy bet on King's Counsel and almost fell out of the grandstand when he saw Clay go to sleep, and Mandolina come with her rush. The winner will be sent to St. Louis to start there in the Derby. He ran yesterday's race in 1:54 1/2 but 1 1/2 seconds worse than the record.

The two mile race was rather tame. Dockstader led for the first mile and three-quarters but Unity, the favorite, passed him when he chose and won in a sauntering sort of way in 3:30, but 2 1/2 seconds worse than the American record.

Major Roller had another good day. He was down on Cheville, Conter's filly, who won the first and progressed the money on Abuse. Then came the King's Counsel race. The major had to employ help to cash after the Clay episode and his own recovery.

Tully Conter came to the front again in the two-year-old race with his Inspector B—Margo colt, Official. Clay rode the youngster, but strange to say, he was not played, nearly every one having a fancy for Algeta, the favorite. She might have won, but it is doubtful. At any rate, her backers had a hard luck story to tell after it, for when the barrier arose, she shied and could never get near the front.

Overella looked a good even money chance for the last race and still the ring offered 2 to 1 about him. He won after sharp contention through the stretch with Ida Wagner.

Yesterday L. A. Legg sold Ferryman II to M. Wynn.

That fast sprinter, The Deuce, has broken down and Legg announces he is for sale.

ABOUT THE PLANTER'S SALE.

According to a telegram received by DAILY RACING FORM yesterday afternoon, Fred Foster demands "an immediate and complete retraction" of the matter in a note about The Planter's transfer from the McClelland to the Foster stable a few days ago. Foster may not be immediately to blame for this demand. A servile person who mis- or over-represents his principal probably sent the telegram. It should have been accompanied by proof that the half column of matter in each of the Cincinnati papers, the day of The Planter's purchase, was untrue. Then DAILY RACING FORM would gladly have made a correction—not a retraction. The misrepresentative evidently "ditched" on English.

DAILY RACING FORM cannot help it, if out of the publication of the note and the more or less sincere message of condolence to the excellent wife of the dead and respected turfman, embarrassing angles were presented to Mr. Foster—or his valet. Therefore there is no retraction published. There is none in stock, either, for Cohn's kind.

Winner—Ch. f, 3, by Bramble—Miss Olive. Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second and third driving. Simmons was handicapped at the start. He acted badly and was away none too well. Chenille is good right now, and the boy handled her like a veteran. Ferryman II had some speed. Mud is his forte and he is ready to win when it comes. Uncas did his best. He was simply outrun. Senator Quay ran a creditable race.

Overweights—Senator Quay, 3.
